Checkout

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "rfcandy WebShop - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The address bar shows "http://www.rfcandy.biz/shop/". The page header includes the text "Welcome to RfCandy shop" and "No minimum order, No handling fee, Low shipping cost". The date is "2010-04-05" and the total amount is "Total Euro: 36.00".

The main content area is titled "Shipping Options". It contains the following text:

The order is shipped out from Swedish Post office using air-flight.
The shipping takes about 6-8 working days.
Delay can occur in the receiver country, which is out of my control.

You can choose between two shipping options.

- Shipping without tracking and insurance
- Shipping with tracking and insurance

Two shipping options are listed, each with an icon and a red circle around the title:

- Shipping without tracking and insurance (4 Euro) (1.)
This is our default shipping, and it is perfect for small orders with low value.
- Shipping with tracking and insurance (15 Euro) (2.)
This is a bit more exclusive shipping method. It is good to choose for more valuable orders. You will receive a tracking number which you can use to follow your order status. The order is also insured.

The left sidebar contains a "Categories" list with various electronic components and a "Main page" link.

Choose which type of shipping you wish to have.
